Phased Reopening Plan

Many of you may have started to wonder when First Broad Street UMC will begin the process of resuming normal activities. The staff at First Broad Street has developed a phased reopening plan that has been adopted by CLC. The plan has been developed within guidelines provided by state and local government and health authorities. More information about that plan will be provided as the process unfolds.

However, in the meantime First Broad Street will continue to operate in compliance with the direction of the Bishop for the Holston Conference. The plan will be activated and communicated upon the direction of the Bishop. We understand that for a long time the online streaming of worship services will be the most appropriate option for many, especially those who may be more vulnerable to COVID 19.

We are so grateful for the support, encouragement, and engagement of our church family during this time. We look forward to seeing each of you as soon as we can safely do so. --Nathan Flora

History of Hymns: "Blessed Assurance" - Fanny J. Crosby

Article by C. Michael Hawn, reprinted from umcdiscipleship.org (Feb. 2014)

*Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!
O what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God,
Born of his spirit, washed in his blood.
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long.*

Tune composer Phoebe Palmer Knapp (1839-1908) played a melody to Fanny Crosby and asked, "What does the melody say to you?" Crosby replied that the tune said, "Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!" and proceeded to recite the entire first stanza of the now-famous hymn. Knapp was one of several tune writers that worked with Fanny Crosby. It was not unusual for one of her texts to be inspired by a preexisting tune. Knapp was the composer of more than five hundred gospel hymns and tunes.

Fanny Crosby (1820-1915), blind at the age of six weeks, was a lifelong Methodist who began composing hymns at age six. She became a student at the New York Institute of the Blind at age 15 and joined the faculty of the Institute at 22, teaching rhetoric and history. In 1885, Crosby married Alexander Van Alstyne, also a student at the Institute and later a member of the faculty. He was a fine musician and, like Fanny, a lover of literature.

An author of more than 8,000 gospel hymn texts, she drew her inspiration from her own faith. Crosby published hymns under several pen names including "Ella Dale," "Mrs. Kate Gringley," and "Miss Viola V. A." Her hymn texts were staples for the music of the most prominent gospel song writers of her day.

Frances Jane Crosby's hymns have historically been among the most popular songs sung by Methodists. "Blessed Assurance" (1873) is one of the ten most popular hymns sung by United Methodists according to Carlton Young, and it is one of eight Crosby hymns in The United Methodist Hymnal.

"Blessed Assurance" was published in 1873 in the monthly magazine edited by Joseph Fairchild Knapp and Phoebe Palmer Knapp, Guide to Holiness. Editor John R. Sweney included it in Gems of Praise (Philadelphia, 1873), and Knapp also chose it for "Bible School Songs" (1873). Perhaps the biggest boost came when it appeared in Gospel Songs, No. 5 (1887) by Ira Sankey and was sung extensively in the Moody and Sankey revivals in Great Britain and the United States. It has been a part of Methodist hymnals since 1889.

This hymn has inspired many singers ranging from those in evangelistic crusades to theologians. Don E. Saliers, William R. Cannon Distinguished Professor of Theology and Worship Emeritus at Candler School of Theology, Emory University in Atlanta, borrowed a portion of the opening stanza for his liturgical theology text, Worship as Theology: Foretaste of Glory Divine (1994). If one enters "foretaste of glory divine" into a Google search, numerous sermon titles appear that incorporate this phrase. YouTube renditions of the hymn abound.

Crosby captured the poetic essence of the Wesleyan understanding of Christian perfection in the phrase, "O what a foretaste of glory divine!" The entire hymn is focused on heaven, a place where "perfect submission" and "perfect delight" [stanza 2] will take place. The earthly existence is one of "watching and waiting, looking above" [stanza 3]. As we submit ourselves to Christ and are "filled with his goodness" and "lost in his love" [stanza 3], we are remade in Christ's image and are moving toward Christian perfection.

This hymn appeals to the senses in a rich way. Not only do we have a "foretaste of glory," we experience "visions of rapture [that] burst on my sight," and we hear "echoes of mercy, whispers of love" [stanza 2]. The refrain calls us to "prais[e]. . . my Savior all the day long," echoing I Thessalonians 5:17, "Pray without ceasing."

Because of her long life, Fanny Crosby had an extraordinary relationship with several United States presidents, even penning poems in their honor on occasion, and she was influential on the spiritual life of or a friend to Presidents Martin Van Buren (8th), John Tyler (10th), James K. Polk (11th), and Grover Cleveland (22nd and 24th). She addressed a joint session of Congress on the topic of education for the blind.

Middle class women in nineteenth-century United States had little voice in worship, however. One of the only ways for a woman to claim the authority to be heard was by direct personal revelation from God. Fanny Crosby readily claimed God's personal revelation as a source for her hymns; her personal revelation then became a communal inspiration as Christians throughout the world sang her hymns and confirmed her faith experience as their own.

Dr. Hawn is distinguished professor of church music at Perkins School of Theology. He is also director of the seminary's sacred music program.

Comfort in Psalm 46

“God is our refuge and strength, and ever-present help in trouble.” Psalm 46:1

This week our granddaughter, Malia, turned 3. We took a family photo of several of us, sitting at an appropriate distance in the living room. It is the oddest picture with all these people at a kid’s birthday party in masks! We have to wonder how children perceive this strange and sudden turn of events and how hard it is for them to cope when they don’t understand what is happening.

This first verse of Psalm 46 reminds us that God is willing and able to take care of us in our time of need. The rest of the Psalm is equally as beautiful and even in English, it reads like a poem, with cadence and rhythm that help to re-assure us.

As we continue to live through this time of COVID-19, we all find ourselves in need of a strong hand of help and encouragement. As we continue to help each other through this, we are looking forward to new developments in the prevention and treatment of COVID-19. --Joy Eastridge

New Symptoms Listed as Possible COVID-19 Signs

When the novel coronavirus first presented itself, we educated the public to watch out for new onset of shortness of breath, fever, cough and fatigue. As we learn more, we are seeing other possible presentations in addition to those four classic presentations.

- Vomiting or diarrhea
- Muscle aches
- Sore throat
- Chills and repeated shaking with chills
- Loss of sense of taste/smell (new onset or change)
- Headache

Experts suggest that if you feel bad or even just different, self-isolate, maintain a calendar where you list your symptoms, and begin to monitor your temperature, and, if possible, your blood oxygen level with a pulse oximeter. Please be aware that doctors and other researchers are learning more about COVID-19 every day. It is important that we stay up to date and keep assimilating new information as it becomes available.

Valley of the Shadow

We are God’s hands and feet in the world. As we walk through this “valley of the shadow,” let us be the presence of the Holy One to each other via Zoom, Facebook, phone call, email, text or old-fashioned letter! We can benefit ourselves by showing kindness to others and by using our energy to reach out in love.

Masks Make Sense

“My mask protects you. Your mask protects me.” While businesses are beginning to open up and we venture out more, let’s be careful and cautious:

1. Wear a mask whenever you are in a store. Patronize stores where employees wear face coverings. The church has some masks to give away. Please call before you come and get one.
2. Maintain social distancing whenever you are in a store. Try to avoid crowds by going to the store at off-peak hours.
3. Wash your hands. Wash your hands.
4. Don’t touch your face.
5. Self-monitor for symptoms.

Mission Trips Postponed through October 2020

We want to give you an update on the status of mission trips in the near future. We have now decided, after much prayer and discussion, to cancel all First Broad Street originated mission trips through the end of October. This was not an easy decision, but one that was made based on primarily being unable to provide a safe and healthy experience for team members and the mission settings we serve. The logistics of travel, housing, meals, and work place people in such a closed in environment that the protocols necessary to insure transmission of a virus are impossible. Here are plans to recapture the opportunities due to cancellation:

Johns Island High School Trip – try to provide some mission opportunity that satisfies the safe protocols this summer if possible, and schedule Johns Island as usual next summer.

Saltville Middle School Trip - try to provide some mission opportunity that satisfies the safe protocols this summer if possible, and schedule Saltville as usual next summer.

Hungary Mission Trip – scheduled for June 18 – 25, 2021.

Estonia Mission Trip – will schedule in August 2021.

Sager Brown Mission Trip to Baldwin, Louisiana – try and reschedule for fall of 2021.

Please pray with us as we navigate a different path; a path full of opportunity, but also one in which we must allow God to lead us in new directions. Thank you for your continued support of the mission ministry of First Broad Street. God's light to the world continues to shine through your passion and generosity!

Food Ministry Resumes Friday Offering

The Food Ministry has been operating on Mondays only in a no-contact manner since mid-March due to the Coronavirus. We will resume operating on Fridays in addition to Monday beginning Monday, May 18th. We will continue to do so in a no-contact method that allows food to be available without placing anyone in an unhealthy environment. Please keep this ministry opportunity in your prayers as we move into a new level of ministry. We thank you for your financial gifts that allow the Food Ministry to continue at a critical time.

Summer Mission Interns Selected

We are pleased to announce the selections of Ellie Hull and Hannah Yarosh as the College Summer Mission Interns for 2020. Ellie is a student at Texas A&M University and Hannah is at Liberty University. Both have been active in the youth ministries of First Broad Street as well as participating on mission trips and local mission ministries. Their passion for serving others will be an asset in their work at a time when we have to be innovative in how we minister to the community and one another. They will be on staff for eight weeks this summer, assisting with reorganization of the mission warehouse, Firewood Ministry, home repair projects that will allow for safe distancing protocols, Furniture Ministry when appropriate, and other special projects that can be done when traditional summer ministries are constrained due to the Coronavirus.

Please join us in welcoming these two students to the summer staff, praying that God will fill their time with the opportunities to fulfill their desire to serve at a time when serving is new, different, and sometimes difficult. We thank you for your continued support of the mission ministries of our congregation that reach out and bless the community in which we live and the world around us.
