Offering Our Gifts
Art Show and Sale and FBS Has Talent

Wednesday Night Live Program November 6
Presented by Creative Souls

- 4-8 Arts Show and Sale/Wesley Wing (cash or checks only)
- 5:30 Create Your Dinner and Dessert/Fellowship Hall/Reservations Required
- 6:15 Program: FBS Has Talent, Staff Talent Show/Fellowship Hall

Creative Souls invites you to attend Offering Our Gifts on Wednesday, November 6 at FBS.

Offering Our Gifts begins at 4:00 p.m. with an art show and sale. Members and friends of First Broad Street will display and sell a variety of handmade crafts such as wreaths, stained glass, fabric arts, pottery, woodworking products, baskets, paper items, paintings, and baked goods. The art show will close at 8:00 p.m. (To purchase items, please pay with cash or checks only. A portion of every sale will help fund Creative Souls.)

At 5:30 in the Fellowship Hall, you are invited to create your own dinner. Reservations are required (224-1502) and normal charges for Wednesday Night Live dinner apply.

Then at 6:15 on the main stage, FBS Has Talent premieres! Members of our very talented Staff will compete for our votes and the coveted Mirror Ball. As a very special treat, Simon COW has agreed to be our guest judge for the evening!

Please plan to be part of this fun event at First Broad Street!

Creative Souls is a ministry at FBS whose members seek to explore spirituality through art. The group meets as needed, and members stay informed of creative opportunities via an email distribution list. If you are interested in joining Creative Souls or would like more information about the ministry, please contact Sue Hopkins, Kay Ann Smith, or Roger Hanz.

Church Thanksgiving Meal

“Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good!” Psalm 107:1

Retta and Brad Overturf are hosting our church wide Thanksgiving Meal again this year. On Thursday, November 28, at noon, you are invited to come to our fellowship hall and bring your family and friends and some covered dishes to share. The church will provide the turkey and dressing so you can focus on your favorite sides and desserts. What’s your family’s specialty? Bring it to share! Call 224-1502 and leave a message if you plan to attend so we can have plenty of turkey.

Let’s be aware of those in our circles of care and influence that might be in need of a place to go for the holiday meal. Pray that God will bring someone to mind and be intentional about reaching out and inviting them to join you here at church that day. Gathering together to eat and fellowship is a wonderful way to celebrate and remember our blessings. Jesus loved to gather with his friends to eat—he showed us how the table can be a place of healing, restoration, and communion.

Thankful for Our Older Generation

Last month, our staff was blessed to attend the New Room Conference in Nashville. While there, we heard J.D. Walt speak and challenge us all to pray for a great revival, an awakening in the church and beyond. Part of his challenge was directed to the older, wiser, members of the church family, saying that previous awakenings have come in response to the prayers of the elders. As part of his talk he gave an inspiring perspective of the importance of our older adults including some of the items on the list below:

World View

- Elderly
- Old
- Out of touch
- Winding down
- Move over
- You are lost
- Retired
- Greatest generation has been
- Sun setting

Kingdom View

- Elders
- Seasoned
- Wise
- Winding up
- You are called until you are recalled
- We are lost without you.
- Un-retired
- “Greater” generation is here.
- Our greatest warriors for prayer

“Very truly I tell you, whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing, and they will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father.” (John 14:12)

All Saints and Good at Grief

In November, we celebrate All Saints on Sunday, November 3. We also have a special Good at Grief session with Trevor Smith sharing from his personal experience on Thursday, November 7, at noon. He will focus on how music and other arts can help us as we move with grief. The community is welcome to come. Many people bring their lunch and eat it during the session. Let Chris Taylor, Paula Poe, or Joy Eastridge know if you have questions (jeastridge@fbsumc.org)

Praying Together Moving Forward

"Now to Him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to His power that is at work within us." Eph 3:20

In preparation for the May 5, 2020 General Conference of the UMC, the FBSUMC church family feels the need to have designated times for prayer and communion. We will hold congregation-wide prayer services on some Sunday evenings in the chapel at 5:45 p.m.: Nov. 17 and Dec. 8. Everyone is invited to attend as we ask God to lead and inspire our delegates, including our own pastor, Randy Frye.

United Methodist Women Sunday

First Broad Street will be celebrating United Methodist Women Sunday on November 10. Rev. Susan Arnold will be speaking in the Traditional Services, and Rev. Rachel Witt Carosiello will lead the Encounter Services. UMW members will be participating in the services.

Rev. Susan Arnold is blessed to serve as pastor with the beautiful people of God at Blountville United Methodist Church. People often describe her as a passionate follower of Jesus Christ, ordained elder in the United Methodist Church, wife, mother, gran, prayer warrior, and former District Director of Connectional Ministry Tri-Cities area since 2007. She loves all things Jesus, family, and the connection of the Body of Christ.

Walking with people as they grow and live in the life of the Holy Spirit is what gets Susan up every day. More than anything, she enjoys being in a room full of people falling in love with Jesus and following the Holy Spirit in their discipleship journey. Her heart it to see people flourish in Christ, lives transformed by God's love, and loving people.

Rev. Rachel Witt Carosiello was born and raised a United Methodist at Mountain View UMC in Kingsport and at Munsey Memorial UMC in Johnson City. After graduating from Dobyns-Bennett High School (2009), she received a Bachelor of Arts in religion with a minor in music from Emory & Henry College (2013) and a Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School (2016). Upon her graduation from Duke, Rachel served as associate pastor at First UMC in Oak Ridge, TN. In 2018, Rachel married her Duke Divinity School sweetheart, Gryff, at First Broad Street UMC, where her parents, Rick and Beth Witt, are active members. Rachel and Gryff now reside in Greenville, SC, with their two dogs, Chaco and Apollo. Rachel is the pastor of Northside UMC and Gryff is the pastor of Sharon UMC. Rachel is excited to be back home preaching in the Holston Conference for a Sunday and is grateful to have the honor of being in worship with the good people of First Broad Street UMC!

Special Music for the 8:30 and 10:45 Traditional services on November 10 will be provided by a Women's Choir made up of UMW members and friends. All ladies who love to sing are invited to participate! You are welcome to rehearse the music with the Flames of Faith at 8:00 a.m. in the choir room on UMW Sunday.

*Thank you to all those who participated in and helped with the Fall Festival!
 It was a great outreach success thanks to you!*

Rotation Sunday School:

Main Idea: God is the source of our joy. Our circumstances might not always make us feel happy, but we can have joy knowing that God is in control. Through Jesus, God made a way for us to have a relationship with Him. That can give us joy no matter what's happening around us.

Bible Memory Verse: "Love one another deeply. Honor others more than yourselves." Romans 12:10, NIV

Bible Story References:

- Jesus Is Promised — Isaiah 9:6-7, Isaiah 53:5, Micah 5:2
 - The Coming Birth of John the Baptist — Luke 1:5-25; 57-80
 - Jesus Is Born — Luke 2:1-20
 - The Wise Men Visit Jesus — Matthew 2:1-12
- Bottom Lines:
- You can have joy because God keeps His promises.
 - You can have joy because anything is possible with God.
 - You can have joy because God sent His son.
 - You can find joy when you search for God.

Missions: Making cards for residents at Preston Place and putting together food bags for the FBS Food Pantry

More information? Organizational Meeting on November 25 at 6:00 p.m., Room 143 or call the Mission Office at 423-224-1531

UMW General Meeting and Lunch Wednesday, November 13, 11:00 a.m.

Dave Hrivnak has a passion for practicing sustainable energy use and sharing his learnings with others. Dave, a retired engineer who has added solar panels to his home and converted his cars to plug-ins, will be speaking about energy utilization and improving energy efficiency. Dave is the author of Driving to Net 0: Stories of Hope for a Carbon Free Future.

November is the month UMW collects donations for the World Thank Offering, which funds mission and advocacy in the United States and around the world. Also, we are collecting canned entrées for Jubilee Project in Sneedville, TN.

Everyone is welcome to attend! If you want to have lunch, make reservations (224-1502) for lunch by Monday, November 11. Cost of the meal is $7.

Holiday Food Bag Dates Set

The Food Ministry here at First Broad Street sees an increase in families and individuals seeking assistance during the winter months. To continue meeting the increased demand for food, the annual Holiday Food Bag Drive offers an opportunity for families, individuals, and small groups to provide additional food for the increased need. It also allows us to remember others during Thanksgiving and Advent. The bags will become available on Friday, November 22 at the Empty Bowl Event and remain so through January 5. Look for the bags, with ingredients needed listed, in the hallway of the church, either by the stairwell, or in the hallway by the restrooms and coffee. Filled bags are to be returned to the cart in the hallway by the main office. We thank you for your continued support of the Food Ministry and look forward to a season of sharing together through this effort. Please call the Mission Office at 423-224-1531 for more information or how you might become a volunteer in the Food Ministry.

Empty Bowls Returns to FBSUMC

FBS will again play host to an Empty Bowls event on Friday, November 22, in the Fellowship Hall. The doors open at 6:00 p.m., and the meal begins at 6:30 p.m. with a concert by Beth Snapp and her band following. The cost per person is $20.00, which covers meal and entertainment, as well as a bowl created by Kipp Brixey of Brixey Studios here in Kingsport.

This event is an awesome opportunity to remember that there are many in our community and around the world that are affected by systemic hunger and malnutrition. It will also serve as a fundraiser for the Food Ministry of our congregation, enabling the purchase of food items from Second Harvest Food Bank that will be provided each Monday and Friday to individuals and families in our community.

Reservations for the event may be made by calling the church reservation line at 423-224-1502, or by registration online through fbsumc.org. For more information about this opportunity, please call the mission office at 423-224-1531.

Weekly Bring One Items for Pantry

- Nov. 3-Cash or checks for local mission offering
- Nov. 10-Beef stew and/or chicken and dumplings
- Nov. 17-Peanut butter, jelly, and/or canned fruit
- Nov. 24 -Spaghetti sauce and noodles

Third Saturday Home Repair Ministry - November 16

The Home Repair Ministry continues to provide mission opportunities each third Saturday of the month, meeting growing enthusiasm with participation from children through senior adults. The ministry will be providing repairs and upgrades on a home in our community on November 16. This is a wonderful opportunity for families, those who work through the week and are seeking a Saturday experience in serving, or anyone who would like to become involved in a ministry of grace and compassion that seeks to repair homes in our community while sharing in Christian love.

Please pray about joining us on the third Saturday, meeting in the chapel at the church at 8:30 am for devotions before departing for the worksite. Experience is not required and this ministry is designed to enable children to have a place in being transformational as well as adults, with most Saturdays ending by noon. Please call the Missions Office at 423-224-1531 for more information, or plan to join us Saturday, November 16.

Furniture Ministry Seeking Beds

The Furniture Ministry is struggling to provide beds to the many seeking assistance with a most basic need. We continue to see increased numbers of families and individuals that are sleeping on the floor or on air mattresses that soon become faulty. Proper rest is essential for development and function of children and youth as well as for the ability for adults to work and parent appropriately. Donations of beds have been lower than usual lately, and the ministry has been able to purchase some beds at a cost of about $200.00 each to try and meet the requests received each week, but they have exhausted their funds for the year already. If you have twin, full, or queen bedding that you no longer use, you may donate to the ministry by calling the mission office at 423-224-1531. In addition to good and clean bedding, the ministry also seeks table and chairs, sofas, living room chairs, end tables, coffee tables, dressers and chest of drawers, lamps, sheets and blankets, dishes, flatware, and pots and pans.

We appreciate your continued support of the Furniture Ministry, a ministry of First Broad Street for 32 years. The ministry has been an opportunity for the congregation to share the love and grace of Jesus Christ to an average of 200 households each year by providing the basic necessities of life while telling the story of God's faithfulness lived out through the provision of furniture. To better understand the impact of the ministry, think about the person who has been sleeping on the floor for several weeks receiving a bed, along with the affirmation of God's faithfulness as it was delivered. Every night, 365 nights a year, the opportunity to experience God's love for them is possible as they lay down for a night of rest. This is an awesome return on an investment! Please pray with us as we seek to continue to fulfill God's calling on the church to reach out to the community in such a unique and fruitful ministry, affirming God's love to those who receive and ourselves as well.

College Mission Trip

The College Age Mission Trip is scheduled for December 28 through January 4, and we are set to return to the Sea Island of Charleston County. We will be staying at St. Johns Parish on Johns Island, and partnering with CHIPS, a ministry of Johns Island Presbyterian Church, in repairing homes on the Islands. The cost per person is $100.00, which covers transportation, housing, and meals. For more information about this mission opportunity, please call the mission office at 423-224-1531.

To give a memorial in honor or memory of friend or a loved one, please mail your check to the Finance Office at 100 East Church Circle, Kingsport, TN, 37660 and mark "memorial" on the memo line of your check.

A Church Circle Christmas Advent Open Houses

On December 8 from 2:00-4:00 p.m., you are invited to visit the beautifully decorated sanctuaries of six downtown churches.

During the self-guided tour of each sanctuary, you will enjoy music and light refreshments.

Participating churches in addition to First Broad Street UMC are First Baptist Church, First Christian Church, First Presbyterian Church, Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, and St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

For your convenience, a First Broad Street van will shuttle among the churches, and you may choose to visit all or some of the churches.

A Church Circle Christmas is a joint project of the FBSUMC Altar Guild and Creative Souls.

The event is free and open to the public.
